

SHOES FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY IS LANE'S PLAN AS PART OF BUSINESS EXPANSION ON BROADWAY

Another Lemon Grove business success story was unfolded here this week with the announcement by Roy Lane, operator of Lane's Men's Wear Shop that he would open and operate a family shoe store soon in the present location at 7763 Broadway.

The business expansion will more than double the business area now operated by Lane on broadway. All plans have been completed and the new venture will start directly after Wigton's move to their newer, enlarged quarters being erected by the property adjacent to their present address.

"The need for moderate priced, high quality shoes has been growing in Lemon Grove. Customer loyalty of Grovans indicate a large enough volume to assure style items in the women's lines," Lane said.

Arrangements have already been completed with the John C. Roberts division of the Friedman-Shelby Shoe Manufacturing Company in St. Louis for their most popular line, Red Goose shoes for children will be featured.

The new store will be 20 x 30 feet in size and should be in operation about October 1st, said Lane.

Lane opened his present men's wear shop here November 26th, 1950 and has enjoyed a steady growth of business. Earlier this year he opened a similar store in Encanto. Prior to coming to Lemon Grove he was in business in Chula Vista, then El Cajon. He came to this area a number of years ago to associate with the Bolderick shoe firm in downtown San Diego.

The attractive lady usually seen in the men's shop is Lane's wife, Mildred. They have a boy, E. L. Scott, enroute home from the Orient where he has been serving with the Army for several years.

This is his "Truman" year," Lane said. "He was to have gotten out last year but Truman changed the service requirements."

The Lane's have been active in many of the civic enterprises undertaken by the community since they started business here. In less than two years he has built one of the more popular shops in the Grove.

S & H Green Stamps, given at Lane's two other outlets, will be given at the new shoe store, he said.

State Prisons Seek Psychiatrists

Certified psychiatrists are eligible, though physicians with two years psychiatric experience will be admitted to the examination if they submit a written statement of eligibility from the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology.

Rella To Build For Expansion

Expansion of Rella's Shoe Store will get under way as soon as architect's plans and other details can be ironed out it was announced this week by Ralph Rella, operator of the store now located at 7880 Broadway.

The present building now houses C-P Appliances in addition to the shoe store. The present plans are to give the entire building to the appliance firm with Rella occupying the new building.

Rella was the first merchant to operate a business on the north side of Broadway having built the building and started the shoe business in July 1948 on that side of the street.

Since then businesses have grown up around him and the present thriving business district has come into being.

Rella started in business as a maker of shoes, later became a shoe repairman and eventually came to the Grove to start a combination repair and retail shoe business.

The Rellas have three children, Ralph, Lucille and Frances.

Who's Who in Lemon Grove

Bob Lindley leads a double life. He's the neighborhood dust collector all year but at Christmas time he doubles for Santa Claus at several of the local church holiday affairs. That describes Lindley pretty well, both physically and temperamentally. He operates the Rexall Drug Store on Broadway.

The plump, friendly man who likes nothing better than to fish, devotes almost 14 hours a day, 7 days a week, either working or doing related chores for his corner drugstore. His few other awake hours each week he dreams of the some-distant time when he'll be able to fish to his heart's content.

"We've got a wonderful set of luggage," laughs Gayle Lindley, his wife who works alongside him in the store. "We got it three years ago and never used it. It's been 12 years since we've had a vacation, but we can dream," she said.

Many changes have taken place since the Lindleys first came to the Grove. During that time the drug store was "complaint center" for many of the local squabbles. Residents used to call the drug store to get a complaint lodged with the sheriff's office, Lindley recalled. There was also a taxicab service with a phone on the outside of our building. Frequently, we'd have to leave a store full of cus-

Schedule For Grove Schools Announced

All schools in Lemon Grove District will open on Monday, September 15.

It is very important that kindergarten and 1st graders be registered as soon as possible! The state law requires that kindergarten pupils be 4 years and 9 months of age on or before September 1. First graders, who have not attended school in California before, must be 5 years and 9 months on or before September 1. There are no exceptions to this rule. Proof of birth is required.

Pupils may be registered any week day from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. in the school district office, 3202 Kempf St. It is not necessary to bring children at time of registration, but proof of birth must be presented.

All children in American Homes and Brookside areas (lots 26-61; 93-110; 152-171; 193-200) will attend the Vista La Mesa School as there is not sufficient room for them in the Golden Avenue school at present.

If the above pupils were to attend Golden Avenue, all classes would be on double session. As it now stands, only grades one and two will be on double session.

and a carte dinner September 5th. Hand work, canned goods and a country store will be part of the affair. Dinner will be 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

"Thanx" Chapter Organized in L. G.

A "Thanx" chapter has been organized in the Grove to aid residents in sending packages to G. I.'s in Korea. Articles needed by the servicemen are candles, soap, razor blades, tooth paste, writing paper, and they also appreciate candy, gum, cookies, small books, funny books, and canned goods. Packages should be wrapped, postage affixed, and left at the Lemon Grove Shopping Center, 3308 Main St., opposite the big lemon, or articles may be left and the local "Thanx" committee will wrap and mail them. Be sure to enclose your name and address in your package.

"Thanx", which has a five minute spot on KFMB-TV channel 8 on Monday and Wednesday at 3:30 p.m., has been approved by the San Diego Welfare Board, Chamber of Commerce and Better Business Bureau. Officers of the group are Mrs. Carlton Shaw, president; Ralph Haass, vice-president; Marilyn Lovelady, Treasurer, and Mrs. Robert Stanforth, secretary.

Here's a Sweet Story of Lemons

The California lemon story is getting juicier and juicier.

Only a decade ago Golden State canners squeezed less than 3,000 tons of lemons for juice. Now California canners use more than 112,000 tons of lemons a year to meet demand for the tart beverage—and production is still climbing.

The star in the rapid growth of lemon juice is an oldtimer—his tin can. Developments now enable the can to play a double role—as a container for frozen, as well as non-frozen, products.

The result, points out Dr. Glenn Cunningham, field economist for the can-making firm, has been a soaring demand the country over for such products as frozen concentrated lemonade and lemon juice and another $9,000,000 a year brought into the state by the canning industry.

Virtue itself turns vice, being misapplied—Shakespeare. Men should be judged... by the quality of thought they think—"Laurence Hope."

Wanna' Vote? ... Then Register!

Wait till September 10th to register and join the crowd in the warning issued this week by George Casteel, deputy registrar for Lemon Grove.

Naturally, he said, you can register before then with comparative ease, he pointed out but by waiting till the last day the fun of joining the procrastinating crowd may be enjoyed.

Registration hours are daily from 9 to 5 with the normal lunch hour excepted. Registrants must be American citizens and residents of the state of California for a year.

The deputy registrar maintains his offices at 7800 Broadway but additional deputy registrars have been named by Lex Lord to aid in the registration. These are: Summer Alpert, 7537 Cuyamaca; Mrs. Ted Magnusson, 2828 Massachusetts Avenue; Frank Foster, 3541 Fairway Avenue, American Homes; Imogene Chambers, 7895 Bryan Court and John Landesco, 1940 Skyline Drive.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

MORE FREE BUD VASES AT McMAHANS

Bud vases, which proved so popular with Lemon Grove housewives are being given again this week at the McMahon Furniture Store in Lemon Grove, it was announced this week by Bud Stewart store manager.

"Last year the average family paid $1589 in direct taxes and another $500 in hidden taxes—a total of more than $2000. This year the 'take' will be even greater. Prospects are that next year an increase of $226 either in new taxes or increased share of the public debt is in store."

UNIFY OR NOT TO UNIFY—HERE IS WHAT THE STUDENTS SAY

With the decision to unify or not to unify still unresolved following spirited meetings by citizens of the school district, the Review sent out its own teen age authority, Beverly Henderson, who conducts the "Teener of the Week" column in the Review to see what the students thought of all the furor.

We bear in mind with readers of the paper that students of today will be taxpayers of tomorrow and that such responsibilities may either change or crystallize the following opinions for whatever they are worth, here they are:

The question: ARE YOU FOR A UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT?

Betty Walter, Lemon Grove: "No, Helix is a new school which we consider ourselves part of."

Pat Conn, Lemon Grove: "No, Lemon Grove isn't big enough."

Ellen Flynn, La Mesa: "No, there's more school spirit with kids from different areas."

Loretta Pinkerton, Lemon Grove: "Yes, Lemon Grove is growing and we need a high school."

Vivian Brington, Lemon Grove: "No, we've helped start Helix and we want to continue being part of it."

Florence Porter, Lemon Grove: "No, we're proud to say we helped start Helix, and we should continue to be part of it."

Aubrey Jenkins, La Mesa: "Yes, it would be a challenge to see if we could succeed as well as Helix and Grossmont."

Archie Stallmeyer, Lemon Grove: "No, our parent's have paid enough taxes as it is."

Donno VanGiesse, Lemon Grove: "Yes, it would be something to look forward to."

Marlene Overcash, Grossmont: "No, there's too many friends broken."

Jack Freedman, La Mesa: "No, it's bad enough not having Helix with us, let alone breaking it up into thirds!"

Milt Dieth, La Mesa: "No, when one school breaks off with the other, their school spirit divides."

Mary Withers, Lemon Grove: "Yes, unless they can give us a decent school bus service."

Judy Phillips, Monterey Heights: "No, we waited too long for Helix—why should we have to give it up now."

Inside Goodwin

by Max Goodwin

A novel twist on an old theme—foreign advice to Uncle Sam on how he should allocate his Point 4 billions around the world—was given by Dr. Dudley Stamp, British geographer, at the recent meeting of the American Geographical Society in New York.

Instead of suggesting more ways for us to spend money abroad, he startled American listeners by saying the U.S. is one of the most under-developed countries and we'd do mankind as a whole more good by development at home. The Mississippi river agricultural area, he declared, has the production potential to feed 500 million persons—nearly a quarter of the world's population.

Even more startling was this practical Englishman's disclosure of the incredible blindness with which U. S. dollars are thrown about in some attempts at foreign development. He cited the Amazon River, into which Point 4 funds are going, as a prize example, asserting that the Amazon is in a tropical area with equatorial damp and heat that cannot be altered by any amount of money! He observed that Liberia is one of the favored areas for Point 4 outlays—although there is not even a good map of that country in existence!

Dr. Stamp's revelations doubtless came as a shock to Point 4 administrators in Washington, but to the average American it surely makes sense to develop our own rich country to the utmost—for the hungry and needy around the globe whom we are trying to help as well as for ourselves.

40 Thousand Dead Foreseen If Bomb Hits Average City

IF YOU'RE reading your newspaper before breakfast you'd better watch out. You've looked at these eggs in the eyes before reading this—your cold, blank stare might horrify you. And at the same time, you should thank your stars that you probably live in a small city not strategic or vital enough to repay the enemy in military gain for dropping an atom bomb upon it.

This is because the Federal Civil Defense Administration has come out with a statement weird enough to cause you in a sick moment to look upon your breakfast eggs as the yellow eyes of doom. The FCDA declares that the average American city would have to bury 40,000 dead within two days after one atomic bomb dropped upon it.

This estimate of thousands of corpses littering the streets after an air attack sounds grim even to funeral directors. The FCDA and city authorities are studying the problems and details of such a gruesome possibility.

There probably would be olive drab plastic sheets in which to wrap bodies. To obtain 40,000 caskets of wood or any other material would be impossible immediately.

Military men look for an atomic attack at once if an enemy makes war against this country. Air Force Chief of Staff General Hoyt Vandenberg says 70 per cent of any raiding force of planes probably will get past U.S. defenses.

The dead of an air attack would have to be disposed of 48 hours after death unless the city were in a cold or dry climate to prevent their being a health hazard. Such wholesale embalming would be out of the question. The first task would be to get the bodies out of sight so they would not destroy the morale of the living.

To permit survivors to file past the unidentified dead in hope of spotting their missing relatives would be impracticable. If 40,000 bodies were laid out in two rows, the aisle between them would be 20 miles long.

From Alfred Ainsworth, Dallas: "One of my father's prized possessions was a ticket of admission to the impeachment of President Andrew Johnson. He attended the trial, and how he got in without handing over his ticket, I'll never know, but he still had it. The ticket read: 'U.S. Senate, Impeachment of the President, Admit the bearer March 13, 1868, Geo. T. Brown, Sergeant-at-Arms.' They would probably have it on television now."

From Drake Dodson, Chicago: "I hope the Old Cuss, who is always sending in those reprobate's remembrances, reads this. He was the only gay dog of the 90's. I friend and I attended the Silver Anniversary of the Meriticians and Ambassadors' convention here in 1923, and we all became 'em' again. We just poured the drinks into the coffins, and went about our business."

Customer growth since 1939, amounting to 70 per cent, has tripled the volume of gas and electricity usage in California, according to studies by the California Public Utilities Commission.

The last part of the lesson text leads us to see the blessed relation between Jesus and his mother. In his last hour on the cross, the thoughts of Jesus were divided between his mother and a repentant comrade by whose cross no mother stood. It may be that Jesus wanted his mother taken away from the last scene of his anguish, that he meant to commit his mother to the keeping of John, for it must have been John, or it may be that he desired both things to be done. And from that hour that disciple took Mary unto his own home.

Thus we find that the Bible teaches respect for the family and all its relations. Obedience to parents is required by one of the Commandments. And as we survey conditions today we realize the importance of the family to our American way of life. Let each member in his own place strive to make the family the means of blessing.

The only consistent performer in sports is the rabbit at the dog track—he never loses. One way of looking at the gloomy side—Babe Ruth hit 60 homers in one year, but there were about 600 times at bat that year that he didn't hit a single homer.

In baseball before a game, because there is only one cage, the players get less than three minutes actual batting practice each, but before a big golf tournament, the competing starters take more than 150 shots each with their clubs. Ty Cobb once went 26 times at bat without a hit. The toughest job in sport is training a thoroughbred to have him fit and ready for the next big race. Eddie Arzara says: "A horse can be completely fit and ready on Wednesday and be no good the next day."

LABOR DAY — AND HOW!

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLDTIMERS

From E. E. Meredith, Fairmont, W. Va.: I remember when every family had a newspaper wall pocket made of pine cones and varnished.

From Mary Karch, Lakeview, Ohio: I remember the old grindstone in the corner of the yard. The old-fashioned yellow road bush. Father sharpened all the farm tools on it. I had to turn it and he would order me to pour of more water and urge me to turn with greater speed. All he did was scar down with all his might.

From the Old Cuss, Chicago: I remember how I used to get tired seeing "Uncle Tom's Cabin" on the stage. Every year it came around the country and everybody just had to go see it. I'd say every year never again, but always my girl would say she had never seen it and would inveigle me into going. (You see, I had a different girl every year.)

In Washington

AS SOME Republicans cry that Eisenhower is a Democrat on the Republican ticket, so do some Democrats complain that Stevenson is a Republican running under Democratic colors.

Some political correspondents are writing that on domestic politics the tenets of Ike and Adlai are interchangeable. While the Democratic politicians are depending upon Stevenson to whistle-stop the nation to the tune of President Truman's anti-Wall Street, anti-Big Business campaign of 1948, Edwin A. Lahey, Chicago Daily News political analyst, taunts the Democratic strategists with this quip: "Scratch Stevenson with a strike notice and La Salle street comes out his pores." (La Salle is Chicago's Wall Street.)

Despite the Democratic campaign chiefs' confidence that they can handle their boy, those who know Stevenson best declare that once in the ring, Stevenson will not change his style of fighting to imitate the New Deal-Fair Deal tactics.

Perhaps short on quips but long on angles, the Democratic chiefs are sitting pretty comfortably on the cushions of satisfaction—satisfaction in the fact that they have found an acceptable unity candidate and paired him with a vice presidential candidate from Dixie who is expected to forge the chain of unity even stronger. These chiefs are more interested in their party's case on the White House than in the New Deal style of fighting.

Nevertheless there is some disstress in the Democratic camp over Stevenson's objections to the civil rights and Fair-Hartley repeal plank in the Democratic platform. Those moaning the most aren't the professional politicians but real conscientious New Dealers who recognize in Stevenson a man who won't compromise his own beliefs to follow a platform. They probably will stick with Stevenson, however, because of his great integrity, even though it won't buckle under New Deal stress.

Stevenson's strategy seems to be based upon widening the break in the Republican party while he is healing the break in his own party. He is emphasizing the split personality of the GOP while playing down the schism in his party. And he, with Sparkman, seems to be just the psychiatric treatment the Democrats needed.

Stevenson will tell the voters that Eisenhower is a nice, fairly liberal fellow, but that in order to get the Old Guard vote he will have to revert to some of the isolationism and hardboiled conservatism of the Old Guard. This will frighten the liberal Republicans and might even convert some of them to Stevenson's cause, if he eschews the New Deal enough. It will rattle the Old Guard and kill their enthusiasm for the Republican ticket. It might win a big majority of the independents.

One thing the Democratic strategists overlook—like might use some of this split personality business of Stevenson.

Importance of Relaxing

WHILE SERVING in the army, Raymond P. Wilson, Muncie, Indiana, was transferred from Seattle, Washington, to Phoenix, Arizona. All his friends had shipped out to other sections, so he found himself all alone. Now for the first time in his life, he was going to have the opportunity to do the things that required solitude. But he found it terribly hard to avoid people, and he continued to have too many friends.

Up to the time of his discharge he still hadn't arrived at what he was seeking. He was wasting a lot of time. A year later he arrived at his goal. But it was like a raging fire he couldn't put out. He went into business for himself and began working day and night.

He got to the point where he was always in a hurry, and when he would meet friends, they could feel his great rush and went on. He would deliberately avoid people and their glances on the street. He even became bored with people and would pick out their faults and dwell on them.

At night he could worry about the problems of the morrow. Eventually he found himself unable to concentrate, or to think clearly. His mind seemed to be behind him in everything he did.

Finally, he took a firm hold on himself, gave himself a good talking to and began reading everything he could get his hands on that would help his situation. One day he read an article about relaxing; he began practicing. While lying in bed at night he would start at the top of his head and relax every single part of his body, down to and including his toes. Also, closing his eyes tightly he imagined he could see nothing but black, to help erase the visions of the day and yesterday.

Next he took a course in public speaking and found to his surprise that it emphasized the importance of making friends, and that he had an asset he hadn't valued.

THE TRUTH from the next room, "Is the Little Mary was on a visit to clock tuning, dear?"

"No ma'am," promptly replied her grandparents, and the old-fashioned clock in the wall was Mary. "It's just standing still while she was standing before her grandmother said to her."

Grove Residents Open El Cajon Blvd. Business

Two Grove residents have started a new business on El Cajon Blvd. It was learned this week, Thomas Duffner, 7049 Central Avenue and Ronald Waltz, 7863 Bryan Ct formed a partnership to operate the Frozen Food Center at 7137 El Cajon Blvd.

The firm will handle Amana Crockery and Quick Freeze units. A plan that will give homemakers more and better food, more convenience at no greater costs than present food expenses will be offered.

Waltz formerly operated an egg ranch on Mt. Vernon Street and Duffner had the Acme Television firm on Broadway.

Electronics Show Set For Long Beach

The amazing electronics industry of Southern California, which has become a billion dollar enterprise in the past ten years, will go on display before 10,000 industry technicians when the annual Western Electronic Show and Convention opens in Long Beach August 27th.

Scheduled to run through August 29th, the 10th staging of the important electronics exhibition and business meeting will be held in the Municipal Auditorium in Long Beach. It will be co-sponsored by the West Coast Electronics Manufacturers Association and, for the first time, the Institute of Radio Engineers, Western Division.

The Annual affair, staged solely for the benefit of members of the electronic and allied industries, will feature an address by Commissioner Rosel H. Hyde, of the Federal Communications Commission, in his keynote address on Wednesday, August 27th, "Today and Tomorrow in Electronics," sketching the rapid rise of the nation's newest industry and outlining some of its anticipated developments.

Among the 10,000 industry experts on hand will be representatives of manufacturers, distributors, and engineers from across the United States. The show ranks among the most important of its kind held anywhere in the nation and will feature more than 200 exhibit booths.

"Can taxes be reduced? The American citizen who answers 'no' to that question might as well admit that he is licked—and that he has lost control of his government—that he is a slave to a bureaucratic octopus from which there is no release." California Tax Digest.

The Russians surprised a lot of people at the summer Olympics

Vincent Price, Marsha Hunt and Beulah Bondi are teamed together at La Jolla Playhouse next week for the West Coast premiere of "The Lady's Not For Burning," by Christopher Fry, noted English author of "Ring Around The Moon."

A comedy set in a picturesque medieval period, "The Lady's Not For Burning" was an outstanding Broadway success two seasons ago. Mel Ferrer, executive producer of La Jolla Playhouse, obtained the national production rights for the play and it will be taken to San Francisco immediately following its presentation in La Jolla.

Vincent Price, popular television and screen star, was seen on the La Jolla stage last summer in "The Cocktail Party." Marsha Hunt, who captivated local audiences this summer in "Affairs Of State," toured with Price in "The Cocktail Party" following the La Jolla production of that play. Beulah Bondi, one of the most revered character actresses of stage and screen, needs no introduction to theatre lovers in San Diego County, having made many appearances on the La Jolla stage aside from her frequent visits to San Diego.

"The Lady's Not For Burning" runs from August 26 through 31 and is the final play of the sixth season at La Jolla Playhouse. Due to the heavy advance sale tickets, there will be an extra matinee Thursday, August 28 at 2:30 p.m.

Christ Jesus Light Of World Sermon Says

The Bible Lesson on "Christ Jesus," to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday.

Paul's declaration in his second epistle to the Corinthians (4:6) constitutes the Golden Text: "God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of God in the face of Jesus Christ."

points out the fact that the teachings of Christ Jesus, when accepted and utilized, lighten all dark places of the earth.

Citrus Gummosis Now Showing

Symptoms of brown rot gummosis on citrus trees are shown by University of California. After a winter of heavy rainfall, it is particularly important that trees be checked for gummosis so that treatment can be made before extensive damage is done.

Inspection consists of examining the trunk of the tree at and near the ground line for evidence of gumming. Treatment consists of removing diseased bark, and treating with a one per cent potassium permanganate solution.

Good jelly depends on three ingredients—acid, pectin, and sugar. University of California suggests some simple tests for good jelly.

add one tablespoon of lemon juice to each cup of fruit juice until it is.

Test the pectin content of the fruit juice with a jelmeter or alcohol. The jelmeter is a special glass tube for jelly making and is usually for sale wherever canning supplies are sold. To test the pectin content without a jelmeter, Miss Johnson suggests stirring one teaspoon of alcohol into one teaspoon of fruit juice.

If the juice has enough pectin in it for good jelly, a jelly-like deposit will form. If it does not, build up the juice with liquid pectin until it will jell. Add four tablespoons of liquid pectin to one cup of juice if there is no pectin in the juice, or add less than that amount to supplement whatever is present.

Best advice I can give you is to read the September Readers Digest. It has 2 mighty important articles.

See page 79 - "AND THEN SUDDEN RUIN". It explains why your automobile insurance cost is increasing so rapidly.

See page 124, "FACTS ABOUT HOME EXTINGUISHERS". If you read this and want more information, call me up.

I'll be happy to come to your house and discuss it with you.

I also call to your attention to the advice in READERS DIGEST "FIRST THING, Call the Fire Department"

DO YOU KNOW HOW TO CALL THE FIRE DEPARTMENT? IN LEMON GROVE YOU WILL GET THE FASTEST RESPONSE BY CALLING H6-4310

Why not paste this number on your telephone or in a conspicuous place near the telephone?

And for all insurance problems at a savings to you, remember to call.

Market Takes On New Name

Temple's Market, 4614 Federal Blvd., taken over recently by Chris Boss and Jack Lee, will have its name changed to Federal Market this week, the new owners say. Effective with the change, store hours are changed to 2 a. m. closing, they said.

Complete renovation is under way at the market and a grand opening will be held when remodeling is complete.

In the meanwhile, new, lower prices prevail.

There are no greater miracles known to earth than perfection and an unbroken friendship.

Pullet Derby In Home Stretch

The pullets in the Derby at the Mason's Feed Store are in the "home stretch," Leland Whittied, store manager, reported this week.

The Leghorn pullets have been in this contest since May 2nd. Each has been given a name so that farmers and others interested in poultry raising, can watch the progress of the birds.

The pullets have been fed the regular Purina "1028" growing ration which has been developed over a period of many years to building strong and healthy layers with long production life.

Whittied explained the "1028" description of the formula is based on 1,028 separate tests made by Purina Research.

Prizes will be awarded those judging the best pullet in the "big race." Since most pullets, on this program, go into production when they are about twenty weeks old, a winner of the Derby can be expected within the next ten days to two weeks, Whittied said.

Anahiem All-Star Game Date Set

The American Legion Junior Baseball Anaheim Tournament Committee set Sunday, Aug. 24, as the date set for the 7th Annual Tournament All-Star Game, in which the players are selected from the teams in the tourney.

The selection of players is made by scouts of organized baseball who assemble at the games looking for talent. Such players as Paul Pettit, Del Crandie, Frank Followell, Eddie Pamquist and many others new in Professional Baseball made the deciding impression in these All-Star games.

Second round of Anaheim Tournament will start Aug. 19 and will end with the Tournament Championship Play-Off, about Aug. 29. No admission is charged and no one associated with these games or tournament receive any compensation.

State Prisons Seeking Guards

California's prison system needs more guards, especially at the Folsom, Soledad and Lancaster institutions.

The State Personnel Board said today that applications will be taken up to August 23 for a civic service examination to be held September 13. Technically, the position is known as "correctional officer" and pays $281 to $341 a month.

Experience in prison work is not necessary. Applications will be received from men able to show two years of any stable working experience or two years in the armed services or in college. Out-of-state men may apply.

If you have to wrap linens or white clothing to put away, wrap in dark blue paper so they won't turn yellow. If the paper is unavailable, dip an old sheet in strong bluing water, let dry and use that.

If collars, cuffs or other parts of wooden apparel develop shiny spots, especially from being pressed with no hot iron, saturate a cloth in hot vinegar and wring out, then while still damp, sponge the material with this. Press on wrong side.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Chicken and Mushrooms (Serves 4)

3-pound frying chicken, cut in pieces
1/2 cup shortening
8-ounce can mushrooms, drained
1 1/2 cups thin cream and mushroom liquid
1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk

Roll pieces of chicken in seasoned flour and fry in hot shortening in skillet until golden-brown on both sides. Add mushrooms and cook until lightly browned. Pour off all but 2 tablespoons of fat. Heat cream and mushroom liquid, add paprika and salt and pour over chicken. Cover and simmer for an hour or until tender. Remove chicken and mushrooms to platter. Add milk to skillet and blend with fat. Mix 2 tablespoons flour and the same amount of water and add to liquid in skillet. Let boil up once, then serve over chicken.

If your dark cottons need to be starched, it's a good idea to tin the starch you're using. Add bluing for black and blue cottons and tea to starch for brown cottons.

Shirts and trousers which have become spattered with paint should be sponged liberally with turpentine. Old paint can be softened first with soft shortening rubbed into the paint to soften, then sponged with carbon tetrachloride. The best way to dry curtains is a stretcher. This eliminates uneven edges. If you don't have a stretcher, use a line, hanging them over it, and do not use clothespins. TOLD

If there is one enterprise on earth that the quitter should leave alone, it is advertising. Advertising does not jerk ... it pulls. It pulls gently at first but the pull is steady. It increases day by day, year by year, until it exerts an irresistible power.—John Wanamaker.

It was John Wanamaker who once said he would never let the local newspaper go to press without his name in its advertising columns.

Re the Proposed Annexation to the Lemon Grove Sanitation District
RESOLUTION OF INTENTION TO ANNEX UNINCORPORATED TERRITORY TO THE LEMON GROVE SANITATION DISTRICT AND NOTICE OF HEARING THEREON

On motion of Supervisor Gibson, seconded by Supervisor Robbins, the following resolution is adopted and notice is ordered by the Board of Supervisors of San Diego County:

WHEREAS, Gustav J. Bank is owner of certain property in unincorporated territory of the County of San Diego contiguous to the Lemon Grove Sanitation District, have asked this Board (Document No. 148,572) to annex said property to said Sanitation District under the provisions of the County Sanitation Act, and

WHEREAS, the County Boundary Commission has approved the boundaries of the proposed annexation (Document No. 148,571); and

WHEREAS, investigation of the proposed annexation by the Division of Engineering of the Department of Public Works discloses that said property is contiguous to said Sanitation District and that it would be desirable and feasible to sewer said property by extension of said District's lines (Document No. 148,570); NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED AND ORDERED:

(a) That it is the intention of the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Diego to annex to the Lemon Grove Sanitation District under the provisions of the County Sanitation District Act all of that contiguous unincorporated territory of the County of San Diego, none of which is now included in any other county sanitation district or other districts formed for similar purposes, bounded and described as follows:

All that portion of Lot 12 of Moody's South addition to Lemon Grove in the County of San Diego, State of California, according to Map 1290, filed in the Recorder's office of San Diego County described as follows: Beginning at a point on the northerly line of lot 12 distant thereon 184.58 feet from the northeasterly corner of said lot thence continuing westerly along said northerly line 278.87 feet thence southerly parallel with the easterly line of said lot 12 to a point in the southerly line of said lot distant thereon 461.45 feet westerly from the southeasterly corner of said lot 12; thence easterly along said southerly line 276.87 feet; thence northerly in a straight line to a point of beginning.

(c) That said Sanitation District following said annexation shall continue to be known by that name.

(d) That the Board of Supervisors hereby sets Tuesday, the 16th day of September, 1952, at the hour of 11:00 o'clock a.m. in the Chamber of the Board of Supervisors, Room 310 San Diego City and County Administration Building, Civic Center San Diego, California, as the time and the place fixed for the hearing of objections to the annexation of said territory to the said District, or to the extent thereof.

(e) That the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors is hereby authorized and instructed to publish this resolution or intention and notice of hearing thereon at length in at least two successive issues not more than 30 nor less than 10 days prior to the time of said hearing in the Lemon Grove Review, a newspaper of general circulation in the County of San Diego, in the territory proposed to be annexed, and in said Sanitation District.

Box Score of Fire in the San Diego County Area

Fires during past week	11
Fires this season	355
Fires to date, last season	379
Acres burned this season	1,254
Acres to date, last season	2,305
Structural damage	$126,643

Only 11 fires this past week. The weather has been very favorable, with high humidity most of the time. We hope Mother Nature will stay with us the rest of the season.

Hunting season will soon be with us in San Diego County. Dove season opens September 1st, and deer season gets under way September 20th. It is important that all hunters know just where the closed areas are in the National Forest, and Walt Puhla, Supervisor of the Cleveland National Forest informs that maps showing the closed areas can be obtained from all ranger stations, sporting goods stores or from the office of the U. S. Forest Service in the Federal Building at Union and F Streets in San Diego. These closed areas apply not only to hunters but the general public as well, and will be in effect until the end of the fire season.

I realize that most hunters are careful with their smokes and matches and camp fires, but it takes only one careless fellow to cause a lot of trouble so this year, let us all be especially careful about our use of fire while we are in hazardous country.

One structural fire this past week was caused by the exhausts of a clothes dryer. These clothes dryers are great labor savers and if properly installed should not be a fire hazard. Make sure yours is safe.

Corned Beef and Cabbage Mold Is He-Man Summer Dish

An old American tradition, corned beef and cabbage, becomes a he-man summer treat when molded into a cool gelatine main dish. Canned corned beef, shredded fresh cabbage and unflavored gelatine are the ingredients in this sturdy two-layered favorite.

Corned Beef and Cabbage, Summer Style

Corned Beef Layer:

1 envelope unflavored gelatine
 1 cup cold water
 1 teaspoon salt
 2 tablespoons lemon juice

1 No. 2 can corned beef, finely cut
 Soften gelatine in cold water. Place over boiling water and stir until gelatine is dissolved. Add salt and lemon juice; cool. Mix in mayonnaise and remaining ingredients. Turn into 8-inch square pan and chill until almost firm.

Cabbage Layer:

1 envelope unflavored gelatine
 1 cup cold water
 1 cup hot water
 1/2 teaspoon salt

2 cups finely shredded cabbage
 Soften gelatine in cold water. Add hot water and stir until gelatine is dissolved. Add salt, sugar, lemon juice and vinegar; stir until sugar is dissolved. Chill until mixture is consistency of unbeaten egg white. Fold in cabbage and cabbage. Turn on top of almost firm first layer and chill until firm. Unmold on serving platter. Garnish with olive slices. Surround with lettuce cups, tomato and onion slices.
 YIELD: 9 servings.

ernment jobs. Then, perhaps because they sensed that taxpayers might be happy about that, they made scare statements to the effect that inflation might get out of hand and that their work would be reduced to an "exercise in futility."

As for the bureaucrats who may lose their jobs—the price and wage agencies said they might have to let more than half their 17,000 employees go—no one needs worry too much in Washington there's a continual going-and-coming of employees, and those who are not good at all will probably just move to another desk.

But momentarily, at least, the poor taxpayer is getting a breather.

Political pundits have been quick to quip that the rash of flying saucers, plaguing the Nation are in reality nothing but old Taft, Warren, Stassen, Ke-fauver, Barkley, Harriman, Douglas and Ewing buttons being tossed in the air.

Major political rumor floating around of interest to California these days is that the 1956 Dem-said that America is "ours to enjoy, ours to preserve, ours to transmit" to the generals which follow us.

C. A. P. Officers Get Promotions

Two staff members of Third Group Headquarters Civil Air Patrol at Gillespie Field received promotions Tuesday evening August 12 at the regular meeting of Group H.Q. The officers receiving promotions were Captains Clyde H. Bond and Josephine Weyer.

Captain Bond has a brilliant war record during World War II while serving with the U.S.A.A.F. as Operations Analyst. Capt. Bond served in the Aleutian Islands and also with Gen. Chenault in China.

Capt. Weyer, now Adjutant of Group 3 H.Q., played a most important part in the founding of Civil Air Patrol Activities in this area. The Captain has always been active in every phase of the growth of the Civil Air Patrol which is every day playing a more important part in the affairs of today when the defense of our country is uppermost in the minds of our military and civilian planners.

After the brief ceremony in which the captain's bars were pinned on those promoted by Major George Weyer, Commanding officer, refreshments were served through the courtesy of Major H. W. Holmes, Chaplain, Third Group Headquarters.

The GOP's on the ball. While VP candidate Dick Nixon was in Sacramento at the State Convention, our operative reports, he was posed for pictures in Lt. Governor Knight's office with each of the Republican congressional candidates in town, and wire recording statements were made by Nixon about each candidate for use in campaigns this fall. A few days later, when Ike flew into L.A., the process was repeated, at the airport, where Ike and the GOP congressional candidates got together.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY HISTORICAL SCRAPBOOK

Compiled from the historical records of UNION TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY • SAN DIEGO

Simplicity of design was the architectural keynote in this structure erected by J. Johnston in 1910. But while the fashionably ornate facade of the 19th century was rapidly passing out of existence, full-skirted matrons were still in evidence.

This photograph, from the historical files of Union Title Insurance and Trust Company, shows the Fifth Avenue Building, located on the southeast corner of Fifth and B Street, as it appeared following its completion in April, 1910. The building was leased by the H. L. Benbough Company in that year, and on July 5, 1910, the store was opened to the public.

By 1926, the premises had become overly crowded, and the decision was made to move to new quarters at Fourth and B—where the company is still located. In that same year, the California Commercial and Savings Bank established its quarters at Fifth and B. Headed by I. I. Irwin, the bank operated for three years before succumbing to the crash of '29.

The Fifth Avenue Building remains an important center of activity—no longer an import shop and shoe store on its ground floor, while four floors of offices hum busily overhead.

Gamma Girls Receive Pins

The El Cortez Hotel was the scene recently for an impressive candlelight ceremony in which Gamma Gamma Chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority received their pledge pins. The 23 girls, all charter members, were honored to have Katherine Kirkpatrick, retiring president, Regional Council, of E.S.A. conduct the program.

A lovely dinner was enjoyed by the members, their guests Mrs. Ruth Walker and Louise Keeler, and 10 members of Alpha Iota Chapter of La Mesa. The Alpha Iota Chapter is starting with an unusually large membership, as most E.S.A. Sororities begin with a membership of 10 or 12. Other charter members are Teemo Brown, Marne Butterworth, Margery Wassell, Margaret Fulk, Jo Ann Cook, Mineola McGee, Ava Anderson, Frances Caldwell, Mrs. Elizabeth Ball, sponsor; Blanche McCall, Pat Heyser, Elinor Kidler, Alice Irvine, Pat Blankenship, Alice Klipp, Van Rushing, Dorothy Hall, Barbara Gardiner and Irene Cady.

Tilton Goes Poetic With Taxes The Subject

Nearly everyone feels the pinch of higher and higher taxes but nobody does anything about it except the taxmakers who seem to be driving them even higher. This led our old friend, and sometime correspondent, Paul Tilton, who operates the only welding firm in California next to the Lemon Grove five house to submit the poetic material published herewith.

Opins Paul:
Tax the farmer, tax his fowl,
Tax the dog, tax his howl,
Tax the hen and tax her egg,
Let the poor old farmer beg,
Tax the pig and tax his squeals,
Tax his boots run down at heels.

Tax his plow and tax his clothes,
Tax his rags that wipe his nose.

Tax his home and tax his bed,
Tax the bald spot on his head,
Tax the ox, tax the ass,
Tax his flivver, tax his gas,
Tax the road that he must pass.

Make him travel on the grass,
Tax him if he dares to laugh,
He is but a common man,
So tax the poor cuss all you can.

Tax the laborer, but be discreet,
Tax the shoes right off his feet,
Tax his bread, tax his meat,
Tax him for walking on the street.

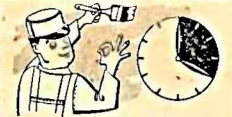

Tax the payroll, tax the sale,
Tax all his hard-earned paper kale,
Tax his pipe, tax his smoke,
Teach him government is no joke.

Tax the coffins, tax the shrouds,
Tax the soul beyond the clouds,
Tax all business, tax all shops,
Tax the income, tax the stocks,
Tax the living, tax the dead,
Tax the unborn before they're fed.

Tax the water, tax the air,
Tax the sunlight, if you dare,
Tax them all, and tax them well,
and do your best to make life hell.

A couple of copies, suggests Mr. Tilton, could well be sent to Mr. Truman. However, he says, someone else must send them. He hasn't enough for postage after paying his taxes, he says.

"Alert America" at State Fair

MAUREEN GYLFE of San Francisco will be "Miss Alert America," the California Civil Defense girl, at the State Fair in Sacramento August 28th through September 7th. She is posed against one of the many displays of the dramatic "Alert America" exhibit which will be presented by the State Office of Civil Defense throughout the fair. Civil Defense officials hail the exhibit, which is free, as "the show that may save your life."

Driver's Maturity Measured by Patrol

A sure sign of a driver's maturity is the respect he shows for traffic signs and signals, the California Highway Patrol said today.

Most drivers suddenly become "mature" and strictly obey all traffic laws when they see a patrol car. For accident-free driving all the time, traffic signs and signals should have the same effect, the patrol said.

The Patrol also said that whether they tell motorists to stop, slow down, keep to the right, inform them of the speed limit or simply suggest use of caution, signs and signals are installed for driving safety.

To disregard them is as childish as touching an object labeled "wet paint" and the consequences are usually more serious. The Patrol said that last year in California 232 persons died in accidents as a direct result of ignoring traffic signs.

Failure to heed posted speed limits brought on the indirect but just as violent death of hundreds more.

"A traffic sign or signal won't give you a ticket if you don't obey it," the Patrol reminded, "but it may save your life if you do."

President Paasikivi of Finland opened the fifteenth Olympiad of the modern era at Helsinki with more than 5,800 men and women athletes from 67 nations in a ceremonial parade before 70,000 spectators.
